

Body Language

Default Instructions:

- A. Go to YouTube and search for “Tonya Reiman,” who is an author and expert on body language. You are looking for segments on “Body Language.” You can also include “O’Reilly” in your searches WITH her name to discover more results.
- B. Carefully consider a variety of the videos, and then choose a minimum of two separate “body language” segments that feature Reiman analyzing other people’s nonverbal behavior.
- C. Write a response paper, using full sentences, to the following:
  1. Using concepts, ideas, and terms from your textbook, what specific things did you find interesting and/or learn about body language and nonverbal communication?
  2. Be sure to reference things related to eye contact, gestures, body movement, etc. Feel free to provide your own commentary on what you heard during the segment.
  3. Do not forget to include the name(s) of those being analyzed, as well as the context where applicable, in the segment you watched. Type (copy/paste) the links to the videos on your assignment.
- D. Follow the above directions carefully; otherwise you will not receive full credit.
- E. Submit to eCollege Dropbox by 11:59 PM (EST) on Sunday of Week 5.
